Disclaimer

By permitting Paid Advertisements to appear on the Website, none of SRDDI, its directors, officers, employees, shareholders or consultants makes any investment recommendations with respect to any of the Companies, including those Companies whose Paid Advertisements appear on the Website. Any person using the Website does so on the express understanding that none of SRDDI or its directors, officers, employees, shareholders or consultants makes any recommendation to 'buy', 'sell' or 'hold' any investment in any Company.

Availability of Paid Advertisements

All Companies are offered the opportunity to purchase Paid Advertisements displayed at the top of Company Specific Webpages, Comparison Webpages, and in Website Comparison

Tables. At any given time a Paid Advertisement for a Company may not appear on those webpages or in those comparison tables because either:

- the Company has been contacted by SRDDI and has declined the opportunity to participate in SRDDI's Paid Advertisements program; or,
- SRDDI has yet to contact the Company to determine if it wishes to participate in SRDDI's Paid Advertisements program.

As the Website aims to have Paid Advertisements displayed on the Home Page and Equivalents reflect a cross-section of Industry Sectors, at any given time not all Companies wishing to advertise on these webpages may be able to.
